working with people with learning difficulties

Living Signs: Being a Social Advocate for the person with learning difficulties

A course for those whose gifts are in befriending and in the personal and practical support needed for social occasions for people with learning difficulties and their families

Who is it for?

- People willing to make a difference in their parish for everyone

What will it involve?

- One 5 hour session
- Learning through experience

What will I achieve?

- Confidence to approach and befriend families where an adult or child has learning difficulties
- Confidence to speak on behalf of our families and to help in negotiations
- Be a sympathetic ear and a reliable presence in their lives

Venue: To Be Confirmed
